

It is pretty clear that massport's agenda under the guise of security is to maintain a monopoly on Internet access at Logan to the detriment of travelers. Clearly they don't want any competition. I would urge the FCC to rule in Favor of Continental.